(1) The exhibitor receives an individual offer from succcet GmbH on request. This contains the specific service description and all costs.

(2) The use of standards, dimensions, drawings and illustrations of the stands and/or conference rooms in the offer is only for descriptive and illustrative purposes and does not constitute a guarantee of specific features.

(3) The validity of the offer shall be limited to 10 days, starting from the end of the day on which the offer is delivered to the exhibitor. After the expiry of the deadline, succcet GmbH may freely dispose of all the contractual components described in the offer.

This also does not apply to other damages that are based on a grossly negligent breach of duty by succet GmbH or on an intentional or grossly negligent breach of duty by a legal representative or vicarious agent of succet GmbH.

(2) Force majeure / Cancellation of the physical trade show due to coronavirus

a) Force majeure: Force majeure means events or circumstances of any kind that are beyond the reasonable control of succet GmbH or the exhibitor were neither present nor foreseeable upon conclusion of the contract and, despite due diligence of both parties, cannot be remedied, averted, offset, negotiated or otherwise overcome and, taking into account the aforementioned, it means events or circumstances or their concurrence in the same comparable manner. It may occur in particular, but not solely, in the event of natural disasters such as floods, earthquakes, lightning strikes, hail and similar accidents; wars and internal unrest; travel warnings by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, industrial action (strike/lockout); fire and pandemics. If succet GmbH is prevented by force majeure from fulfilling a contractual obligation, succet GmbH shall immediately notify the exhibitor of this circumstance while specifying the obligations which it is or shall be prevented from fulfilling. After sending this notification, succet GmbH shall be exempt from fulfilling the obligations as long as it is prevented from doing so by force majeure. In the event of a force majeure event, the parties shall endeavour to fulfil their contractual obligations as far as possible and shall always endeavour to adapt the contract to the best of their ability.

(b) Corona virus: The parties are aware that the Corona pandemic may lead to changes in legal regulations, applicable ordinances and / or official changes, directives and restrictions for physical events at short notice. In the event that the in-person trade show cannot be held as planned as scheduled due to the corona pandemic or has to be cancelled by an official order or state law regulation and / or has to be restricted in such a way that the purpose of the trade show can no longer be achieved, succet24/25 will be postponed. As soon as succet GmbH has positive knowledge of the impracticability of the trade show on 12 + 13 February, 2025, succet GmbH shall notify the exhibitor of this circumstance without delay. After submitting this notification, succet GmbH is released from the obligation to hold succet24/25 on the scheduled date as long as the corona-related circumstances prevent it from holding the event. succet GmbH will organise a rescheduled date within the next nine months after the removal of the corona-related obstacles. The exhibitor will be informed of the new date immediately after it has been fixed. These provisions shall continue to apply to the rescheduled date, with the proviso that the remaining 50 % of the exhibitor fees in accordance with § 3 (2) of these provisions must be received by succcet GmbH nine weeks before the newly announced date.

succcet GmbH is also unable to hold succcet24/25 in February, 2025 for reasons that make further planning and organisation of succcet24/25 economically or actually impossible. Such reasons exist in particular, but not conclusively, if

- short-term legal changes or official orders are issued that conflict with the trade show
- incidence values set by the authorities are reached
- a ban on accommodation at the venue is imposed
- travel restrictions are imposed on exhibitors

Should such a circumstance arise, succcet GmbH will inform the exhibitor immediately.

(3) Notwithstanding § 4 para. 2 lit. a and b, succcet GmbH reserves the right to withdraw from the contract if there are factual reasons justifying such withdrawal. An objectively justified reason exists in particular - but not conclusively - if

- the purpose of the trade show can no longer be achieved, and
- the realisation becomes unacceptable for economic reasons.

Section 5: Termination

(a) The rental period is limited in time. A statutory notice of termination does not exist in this case.

(b) succcet GmbH shall be entitled to terminate the rental agreement by extraordinary termination without notice if there is good cause. Such a cause may exist in particular if the exhibitor violates his obligations as specified in these General Terms and Conditions. The same shall apply to the exhibitor if there is good cause.

Section 6: Obligation to Notify Claims / Limitation

Claims of the exhibitor against succcet GmbH shall become time-barred after one year, starting with the end of the month in which the last day of the trade show falls. The regulations shall be waived if succcet GmbH is accused of intentional or grossly negligent conduct or if the statutory provisions apply, provided that the disclaimer under Section 4(1) of these General Terms and Conditions does not apply.

Section 7: Offsetting / Right of Retention

The exhibitor can only offset if the counterclaim is undisputed or legally established. The exhibitor shall only be entitled to exercise a right of retention to the extent that his counterclaim is based on the same contractual relationship.
